Wilderness At 50: Photographic Reflections On Legacy Of Tionesta Visionary Howard Zahniser

In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Wilderness Act of 1964 and the local author of that legislation, an exhibition featuring four large-scale works each by many of the nation's foremost nature photographers: Craig Blacklock, Clyde Butcher, Robert Clements, Kevin Ebi, Robbie George, Stephen Gorman, Robert Glenn Ketchum, Scot Miller, David Muench, Marc Muench, and Mark Muse will be held Saturday, August 30 through Sunday, September 28 at the Crary Art Gallery, 511 Market St. in Warren, PA. This show has special historical meaning for the region because the Wilderness Act of 1964 was authored by Tionesta native Howard Zahniser.

Photographs will be for sale. Many of the photographers' books will be on display.

This special exhibition was conceived and produced in cooperation with Friends of Allegheny Wilderness in Warren, and has been generously supported by community foundations, businesses, members and volunteers.

The Crary Art Gallery will be having special hours for this show: Thursday through Saturday 12 Noon to 6 PM, until 8 PM on Friday, Sunday 12 Noon to 4 PM. The gallery will also be open on Labor Day, Monday, September 1st.
